INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

RADIODIAGNOSIS

Techniques/Subspecialities

Radiography

Modified radial head — capitellum projection in elbow trauma (Short communication), 74

Observer variation in plain radiography of the lumbosacral spine, 366

An in vitro study comparing two different film–screen combinations in the detection of impacted fish bones, 930

Ultrasound

A flow model of cerebral aneurysms for use with power Doppler studies (Short communication), 76

Diseases that simulate acute appendicitis on ultrasound (Pictorial review), 94
Studies of acoustic streaming in biological fluids with an ultrasound Doppler technique, 297
The ultrasound appearances of intratesticular varicocoele (Case report), 324
Diagnosis and staging of pancreatic cancer by endoscopic ultrasound, 492
Ultrasound features of disseminated adenomucinosis (pseudomyxoma) (Case report), 564
Ultrasound and Doppler features of accessory spleens and splenic grafts, 595
The value of colour Doppler ultrasonography for small bowel involvement of adult Henoch–Schönlein purpura (Case report), 788
Predictive value of clinical examination, transrectal ultrasound and magnetic resonance imaging prior to radiotherapy in carcinoma of the cervix, 819
Differential diagnosis of lymph node lesions: a semiquantitative approach with colour Doppler ultrasound, 828
General practitioner requests for upper abdominal ultrasound: their effect on clinical outcome, 1021
Sonographic evaluation of focal nodular hyperplasias (FNH) of the liver with a transpulmonary galactose-based contrast agent (Levovist), 1026
Ultrasonic heel pad thickness measurements: a preliminary study, 1149

MRI

A comparison of T_2 and gadolinium enhanced MRI with CT myelography in cervical radiculopathy, 11
The magic angle phenomenon in tendons: effect of varying the MR echo time, 31
CT and MRI appearances of sarcomatous change in chronic pelvic endometriosis (Case report), 90
Magnetic resonance imaging of fistula-in-ano: STIR or SPIR? 141
Cervical assessment by magnetic resonance imaging — its relationship to gestational age and interval to delivery, 155
Experiences with functional magnetic resonance imaging at 1 tesla, 160
Supradiaphragmatic Middle Aorta Syndrome — MR and angiographic imaging (Case report), 213
Leiomyosarcoma of the maxillary sinus: CT and MRI findings (Case report), 221
Use of fluid-attenuated inversion recovery (FLAIR) pulse sequences in perinatal hypoxic-ischaemic encephalopathy, 282
Comparison of MR sequences in quantifying in vitro cartilage degeneration in osteoarthritis of the knee, 291
Cervical ecchordosis physaliphora: CT and MR features (Case report), 329
Lumbar spine magnetic resonance imaging: comparison between fast spin echo proton density and spin echo T_1 axial scans, 487
Improved diagnostic accuracy in dynamic contrast enhanced MRI of the breast by combined quantitative and qualitative analysis, 501
Failure to detect intrauterine growth restriction following in utero exposure to MRI (Short communication), 549
MR imaging of primary pancreatic leiomyosarcoma (Case report), 561
Evaluation of cystic ovarian lesions using apparent diffusion coefficient calculated from turbo-FLASH MR images, 612
Benign solitary fibrous tumour of the pre-sacral space: MRI findings (Case report), 677
Tuberculous pericarditis: MRI features with contrast enhancement (Case report), 680
Helium-3 imaging of pulmonary ventilation (Commentary), 701
Predictive value of clinical examination, transrectal ultrasound and magnetic resonance imaging prior to radiotherapy in carcinoma of the cervix, 819
Three-dimensional fast fluid attenuated inversion recovery (3D fast FLAIR): a new MRI sequence which increases the detectable cerebral lesion load in multiple sclerosis, 840
Lipoblastomatosis of the shoulder: unusual MR appearance (Case report), 884
Magnetic resonance imaging of soft tissue expanders used in the management of musculoskeletal sarcomas, 926
Optimization of magnetic resonance imaging parameters for left ventricular wall motion studies at 0.5 T, 1033
Magnetic resonance cholangiopancreatography in the evaluation of pancreatic duct pathology (Pictorial review), 1100
Quantitative dynamic contrast enhanced MRI of recurrent pelvic masses in patients treated for cancer, 1136
Magnetic resonance imaging of the painful wrist (Pictorial review), 1323

CT

Dual phase spiral CT in the detection of small insulinomas of the pancreas, 20
CT and MRI appearances of sarcomatous change in chronic pelvic endometriosis (Case report), 90
Maximum intensity projection images in the detection of simulated pulmonary nodules by spiral CT, 135
Virtual cystoscopy based on helical CT scan datasets: perspectives and limitations, 262
Three-dimensional spiral CT angiography in pancreatic surgical planning using non-tailored protocols: comparison with conventional angiography, 268

In vivo assessment of neovascularization of liver metastases using perfusion CT, 276
Cervical ecchordosis physaliphora: CT and MR features (Case report), 329
Appearances of paranasal fungal sinusitis on computed tomography (Case report), 340
CT angiography in vascular intervention for stenoocclusive diseases: role of multiplanar reconstruction and source images, 601
Enhancement of subtle density differences of the lung parenchyma on CT (Pictorial review), 686
Image processing and spiral CT of the thorax (Review article), 708
Bronchial arterial angio-CT: evaluation of intradural and oesophageal enhancement before bronchial arterial infusion, 834
CT scanning of the paranasal sinuses: axial helical CT with reconstruction in the coronal direction versus coronal helical CT, 846
Computed tomography findings in an inflamed Meckel diverticulum (Case report), 882
CT dimensions of the normal pericardium, 923
CT measurement of main pulmonary artery diameter, 1018
Comparison of three-dimensional virtual endoscopy with bronchoscopy in patients with oesophageal carcinoma infiltrating the tracheobronchial tree, 1271
The presence and significance of lymphadenopathy detected by CT in primary sclerosing cholangitis, 1279
CT appearances of hepatic involvement in systemic varicella-zoster (Case report), 1317

Interventional radiology

Giant fusiform basilar artery aneurysm: endovascular treatment by flow reversal in the basilar artery (Case report), 332
Radiological management of venous thrombosis of the lower limb (Commentary), 353
The use of TIPS to control bleeding caput medusae (Case report), 558
CT angiography in vascular intervention for stenoocclusive diseases: role of multiplanar reconstruction and source images, 601
Percutaneous biopsy of small hepatic lesions using an 18 gauge automated needle, 621
Ultrasound guided fine needle aspiration cytology in abdominal tuberculosis, 723
Percutaneous placement of a self-expandable stent for treatment of a malignant pulmonary artery stenosis (Case report), 785
Diagnostic imaging and interventional therapy of hepatocellular carcinoma (Review article), 808
Bronchial arterial angio-CT: evaluation of intradural and oesophageal enhancement before bronchial arterial infusion, 834
Image guided breast biopsy — technical advances (Commentary), 908
Stereotactic excisional breast biopsy performed by interventional radiologists using the advanced breast biopsy instrumentation system, 1003
Direct percutaneous transrenal embolization for renal artery injury following percutaneous nephrostomy (Case report), 1199
The management of peripheral arterial aneurysms using percutaneous injection of fibrin adhesive, 1255
Radiation exposure to medical staff in interventional radiology (Correspondence), 1333

Angiography

Supradiaphragmatic Middle Aorta Syndrome — MR and angiographic imaging (Case report), 213
Leiomyosarcoma of the maxillary sinus: CT and MRI findings (Case report), 221
Three-dimensional spiral CT angiography in pancreatic surgical planning using non-tailored protocols: comparison with conventional angiography, 268
Outpatient angiography: a prospective study of 3 French catheters in unselected patients, 484
Treatable lesions demonstrated on vertebral angiography for posterior circulation ischaemic events, 1266

Nuclear Medicine

Recurrent follicular carcinoma — oxyphilic cell type (Hürthle cell carcinoma) of the thyroid, imaging with iodine-131 and technetium-99m tetrofosmin before and after radiotherapy (Case report), 87
The use of nuclear medicine in infections (Review article), 252
Clinicians' interpretation of the indeterminate ventilation–perfusion scan report (Correspondence), 348
^{123}I-MIBG SPECT of Merkel cell carcinoma (Case report), 886
Scintigraphic evaluation of craniopagus twins (Case report), 1096

Paediatric Radiology

Cranial trauma following birth in term infants (Pictorial review), 233
Use of fluid-attenuated inversion recovery (FLAIR) pulse sequences in perinatal hypoxic-ischaemic encephalopathy, 282
Dose reduction in a paediatric X-ray department following optimization of radiographic technique, 852
Endometroid adenocarcinoma of the cervix in a 9-year-old girl (Case report), 1093
Congenital bilateral cystic neuroblastoma with liver metastasis and massive intracystic haemorrhage (Case report), 1205
Congenital Ewing's sarcoma of the humerus (Case report), 1313

Oncology

Image guided breast biopsy — technical advances (Commentary), 908

Stereotactic excisional breast biopsy performed by interventional radiologists using the advanced breast biopsy instrumentation system, 1003

Endometroid adenocarcinoma of the cervix in a 9-year-old girl (Case report), 1093

Prostate specific antigen level and Gleason score in predicting the stage of newly diagnosed prostate cancer, 1130

Quantitative dynamic contrast enhanced MRI of recurrent pelvic masses in patients treated for cancer, 1136

Congenital bilateral cystic neuroblastoma with liver metastasis and massive intracystic haemorrhage (Case report), 1205

Metastases to the pancreas (Pictorial review), 1208

Breast

Discharge of microcalcifications during a localization procedure (Correspondence), 459

Improved diagnostic accuracy in dynamic contrast enhanced MRI of the breast by combined quantitative and qualitative analysis, 501

Image guided breast biopsy — technical advances (Commentary), 908

Stereotactic excisional breast biopsy performed by interventional radiologists using the advanced breast biopsy instrumentation system, 1003

Routine receiver operating characteristic analysis in mammography as a measure of radiologists' performance, 1012

Genitourinary tract

General urinary tract

Spontaneus rupture of renal tumours: the role of imaging in diagnosis and management, 146

Virtual cystoscopy based on helical CT scan datasets: perspectives and limitations, 262

Anatomical communications of the perirenal space (Pictorial review), 450

A comparison of a non-ionic dimer, iodixanol with a non-ionic monomer, iohexol in low dose intravenous urography, 910

Comparison between the efficacy of dimeric and monomeric non-ionic contrast media (iodixanol vs iopromide) in urography in patients with mild to moderate renal insufficiency, 918

Renal cell carcinoma with a fatty component mimicking angiomyolipoma (Case report), 977

Renal malacoplakia: an important consideration in the differential diagnosis of renal masses in the presence of Escheria Coli infection (Case report), 1083

Gynaecology

CT and MRI appearances of sarcomatous change in chronic pelvic endometriosis (Case report), 90

Failure to detect intrauterine growth restriction following in utero exposure to MRI (Short communication), 549

Evaluation of cystic ovarian lesions using apparent diffusion coefficient calculated from turbo-FLASH MR images, 612

Predictive value of clinical examination, transrectal ultrasound and magnetic resonance imaging prior to radiotherapy in carcinoma of the cervix, 819

Endometroid adenocarcinoma of the cervix in a 9-year-old girl (Case report), 1093

Quantitative dynamic contrast enhanced MRI of recurrent pelvic masses in patients treated for cancer, 1136

Obstetrics

Cervical assessment by magnetic resonance imaging — its relationship to gestational age and interval to delivery, 155

A 10 year audit of antenatal ultrasound detection of renal disease, 497

Scintigraphic evaluation of craniopagus twins (Case report), 1096

Male genital system

The ultrasound appearances of intratesticular varicocoele (Case report), 324

Solitary fibrous tumour of the prostate (Case report), 1086

Prostate specific antigen level and Gleason score in predicting the stage of newly diagnosed prostate cancer, 1130

Interventional procedures

Direct percutaneous transrenal embolization for renal artery injury following percutaneous nephrostomy (Case report), 1199

Central nervous system

A flow model of cerebral aneurysms for use with power Doppler studies (Short communication), 76

Experiences with functional magnetic resonance imaging at 1 tesla, 160

Use of fluid-attenuated inversion recovery (FLAIR) pulse sequences in perinatal hypoxic-ischaemic encephalopathy, 282

Giant fusiform basilar artery aneurysm: endovascular treatment by flow reversal in the basilar artery (Case report), 332

Middle cranial fossa arachnoid cysts: not always a benign entity (Case report), 441

Three-dimensional fast fluid attenuated inversion recovery (3D fast FLAIR): a new MRI sequence which increases the detectable cerebral lesion load in multiple sclerosis, 840

Treatable lesions demonstrated on vertebral angiography for posterior circulation ischaemic events, 1266

Head and neck
